

Bahá'í RE
Resources for Schools

“Bahá’u’lláh: The Divine Physician”

A film featuring young people as they explore the relevance of Bahá’í teachings on world unity to today’s issues.

The Bahá'í bicentenary

Bahá' u' lláh, the Founder of the Bahá' í Faith, was born in Tehran in 1817. Two centuries later, Bahá' ís around the world are celebrating the day of his birth and the birth of the forerunner of his Revelation, the Báb, born in 1819. Bahá' u' lláh taught that religions are from the same source, and that the peoples of the world should come together and work towards unity.

More about the film “Bahá' u' lláh: The Divine Physician” :

- Suitable for showing in schools with 9 to 14-year-old pupils as part of a lesson on the Bahá' í Faith
- May be used with an adult audience, as an introduction to an interactive discussion or panel event
- 17 minutes running time
- Extension activities and notes for teachers:
re.bahai.org.uk/bicentenary/
- Link to film: youtube.com/watch?v=Gzs\_11Xk6zg
- General information on the Bahá' í Faith for schools:
re.bahai.org.uk

Bahá'í RE
Resources for Schools