

INTRODUCTION TO THE BAHÁ'Í FAITH – WORKSHEET

Who are the Bahá'ís?

1. Who do Bahá'ís follow?

What do Bahá'ís believe?

2. Is it possible to really understand God?
3. Name three great religious teachers from the past.
4. Suggest one problem in the world which would be solved quite simply by everyone being treated equally.

Community Life.

5. Write what happens first at a “Feast”, and what happens at the end. Why do you think things are done this way round?
6. What do “junior youth” activities try to get young people to think about?
7. Who are Bahá'í activities for? (The answer to this question is clearly set out.)
8. Why do you think the House of Worship in India is designed to look like a lotus flower? (If you wish, you may do a sketch of one of these Houses of Worship.)
9. What metaphor is used to explain why men and women should have equal status?

How did the Bahá'í Faith begin?

10. In what country did the Báb live, and what happened to Him?
11. Who announced Himself as a Messenger of God, with a new religion?
12. Which would you think is worst? Being tortured, being imprisoned, or being exiled?
13. Where is Bahá'u'lláh's shrine?
14. Give the name of one of Bahá'u'lláh's books.
15. How did Bahá'u'lláh ensure that the Bahá'í Faith did not split up into sects?
16. Where is Shoghi Effendi buried?
17. What is the name of the Bahá'í world body? Why do you think it is called that?

Bahá'í Teachings for the World.

18. Suggest an environmental problem which would be easier to solve if there were a world government.
19. Which of the 5 economic principles listed do you think is the most important and why?